Commission Tells President Results Proved 'Substantial Progress' and That Present Stage of Findings Is 'Now Concluded'

Washington, May 17 (AP)—The White House said today that tests involving three atomic weapons of improved design proved successful in all respects recently at Eniwetok Atoll in the Pacific.

The statement was made as the Atomic Energy Commission gave President Truman an official report saying the results "indicate very substantial progress."

Chairman David E. Lilienthal and the four other commissioners reported orally to Mr. Truman that the "present stage of the commission's tests of atomic weapons is now concluded."

Lilienthal called the tests "a milestone in atomic development."

The White House statement about the report follows:

"The President today received from the United States Atomic

Several Are Hurt In Truck-Car Crash Near New Paltz

Occupants Are Treated In Doctor's Office Following Mishap Sunday Evening

Several persons were injured in a collision of a light truck and an auto on Route 32 about two miles north of New Paltz at 9:30 p. m. Saturday, according to the state police.

Those riding in the car driven by Joseph Dall Vecchia, 21, of Marlborough, who suffered lacerations of the left side of the forehead; Geraldine Sullivan, 23, Marlborough, lacerations of the left side of the face, cut left little finger and numerous glass punctures of the face and neck; Allen Purdy, 25, of Marlborough, lacerations of the forehead, nose and shoulder and possible internal injuries; and the driver, who suffered contusions of the left shoulder and abrasions of the left side of the face.

All were treated in the office of Dr. Robert Reid of New Paltz.

The truck was operated by Bernard McGivern, 43, of New Paltz, who was issued a summons on the charge that he was operating the vehicle with improper registration. He was fined $10 by Peace Justice I. C. Barnes of New Paltz, the report said.

The driver of the truck along with McGivern, 43, and Ellen McGivern, 5, appeared to have been injured in the collision, the state police said, but the extent of their injuries is unknown.

The auto, driven by Joseph Dall Vecchia, the report said, was traveling north on the route, attempting to pass the truck which was about to turn left. In the resultant confusion the two collided. Both vehicles were damaged considerably.

The investigation was by the state police from the Highland station.

Will End Effort

Lake Success, May 17 (AP)—The United Nations Atomic Energy Commission decided today to end its two-year effort to agree on world atomic control. The vote was 9 to 2.

A West coast network of 40-odd radio stations has decided not to broadcast free-of-charge speeches by President Truman which it considers political.

It said other presidential candidates will receive the same treatment.

The Don Lee Network announced its policy after Kenneth D. Fry, radio director of the Democratic National Committee, disclosed that Mr. Truman's speech to young Democrats Friday night was not broadcast on the West coast.

The Don Lee Network is the West coast outlet of the Mutual Broadcasting System, which carried Mr. Truman's speech. It has stations in California, Oregon and Washington.

Fry said he didn't know the speech wasn't being broadcast on the coast until telegrams and Energy Commission a Report on Tests of Atomic Weapons Conducted at the Commission's Proving Ground at Eniwetok Atoll in the Marshall Islands. The Tests were held pursuant to approval of the President given in June, 1947. The first series of the tests are now completed.

"The commission reported that the tests involving three atomic weapons, each of improved design, was successful in all respects, and that the results indicate very substantial progress. The President gave general approval of commission plans for steps if proposed to initiate at once for further nuclear development, based upon information gained from the tests."

"As previously announced by the commission, the tests were conducted under the security provisions of the Atomic Energy Act, and information as to the scientific results and technical details of the tests cannot be made public at this time. The area of the proving ground, as previously defined, remains closed to unauthorized persons."

"The secretary of national defense and the Atomic Energy Commission have authorized services of the personnel engaged in the tests, for release by the military and scientific leaders of the project upon their return to Honolulu tomorrow."

There may be statements from Honolulu then, from Lt. Gen. John E. Hull, commander of the task force, and from Capt. James S. Russell, task director who is in the commission's military application division, Lilienthal said.

He said about 10,000 men were involved in the test, including military.

Ford Asks Voluntary Wage Cut

C.I.O. Rejection Proves Tart; Half Million Auto Workers Are Involved 'Security' Cited

Public Welfare Is Cited in Planned Talks on Wages

Detroit, May 17 (AP)—An unprecedented scene on America's automotive labor front unfolded today.

For the first time a major car manufacturer—Ford—asked its unionized workers to take, in effect, a wage cut.

The proposal, which met a tart C.I.O. rejection, came against the backdrop of a major strike in the industry and a hint, if not a threat, of a second such walkout.

In one way or another, half a million car plant workers, across the country were directly involved.

This was the immediate situation in the C.I.O. United Auto Workers' spring wage drive for a third postwar boost in pay.

The Ford Motor Co., pleading a cause of "public security," proposed that its wage "differential" with competitors be eliminated, meanwhile rejecting the U.A.W.'s demand for a 30 cents hourly increase.

The bulk of Ford's 107,000 production workers probably would be affected in any reduction of pay rates. Ford's pay is said to be roughly about 10 cents higher than the pay of rival firms.

The union, in a tart rejoinder, said "No," though offering to drop its wage demand if Ford would "successfully" exert its influence to secure a national price rollback to cut the cost of living.

2. The strike of 75,000 Chrysler workers for a 30 cents an hour increase entered its sixth day without a sign of a peace offering from either side. The U.A.W. calls this the nation's "most important" labor battle. Ford Local 600 voted the Chrysler strikers a defense fund of $125,000.

An estimated 10,000 to 12,000 General Motors workers approved a strike for a 25 cents an hour increase. The U.A.W. is currently polling its 175,000 G.M. members on the strike question.

Whatever the outcome, all the industry's 500,000 or more workers likely would be affected in establishment of any new wage pattern.

The effect on other industry might also be a pronounced one.

Ford made his proposals in suggesting that "top priority" be given to the "objective of public security" in forthcoming negotiations.

John S. Bugas, vice president and director of industrial relations, told the U.A.W. that this was a "responsibility" of both union and company "in the light of present conditions."

The U.A.W.'s wage demands would raise costs and "compel" a price increase on Ford products, Bugas said.

In its sharp reply the U.A.W. charged that Ford "has joined with the rest of American industry in the most disgraceful and

Koeppen Is Hurt As Cars Sideswipe At East Kingston

Several Other Occupants of Two Autos Escape Injury; Cars Forced Off the Highway

One person was reported injured slightly and several occupants of two autos escaped uninjured when the vehicles sideswiped on a turn on Route 32 about two miles north of East Kingston at about 9:30 p. m. Sunday, according to the state police.

Edward Koeppen, 53, of 118 Hooker street, this city, driver of one of the autos, suffered possible back injuries, the report said.

Koeppen was headed south on the route and the other car, driven by Ralph Graziano, 217 Robinson street, Hudson, was traveling in the opposite direction when they sideswiped, the report said.

Riding with Graziano, the report said, were Rose Graziano, 33, Mary Tanno, 50, and Ralph Tanno, 16, and Anthony Tanno, 12, all of Hudson.

Mabel Koeppen, 54, of Hooker street, and Wanda Koeppen, 67, of 52 Grant street, this city, were riding in the other car.

College Junior Drowns; Rescue Was Close

Hoboken, N. J., May 17 (AP)—A socially-prominent college junior drowned in Newark Bay inches from rescue Sunday, after his sailboat had overturned.

Police Lieut. Edward Davis of Jersey City identified him as Richard Prosser, 21, of 306 Lydecker street, Englewood, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roger D. Prosser.

Davis said a 20-foot boat sailed by Prosser and Peter Hamman, 21, of 25 Forbes Blvd., Tuckahoe, N. Y., capsized a mile off Dwyer's Point.

A crash boat sped to the scene and picked up Hamman. As it maneuvered to take aboard Prosser, the youth slipped under the water and disappeared.

Davis said both were students at Stevens Institute of Technology, and that they were sailing from the nearby Stevens Yacht Club.

May Day? First Fair Afternoon, Is Latest Statement

Postponed twice because of rain, May Day at Kingston High School will be held the first afternoon possible according to an announcement from Clarence L. Dumm, principal of the high school, this morning. The traditional celebration was first scheduled for Friday morning, then for this afternoon.

The ceremonies will begin about 2 p. m. and will be completed in time for the out-of-town pupils to make their school buses.

This is the first time since 1945 that May Day has been off schedule because of the weather. However that year, instead of spring rains, snow actually fell May Day morning, May 11, 1945. Mary Conway was queen and the festivities were postponed an entire week because of the unusual cold.

May 18, 1945, was not much better with cloudy skies and a slight shower during the ceremonies.

May 10, 1946, was a "glorious day" with Mary Selmonmaker as May Queen and last year May Queen Gloria Tabacchi had one of the finest days in years with hardly a cloud in the sky, May 23, 1947.

Nancy Barnum has been elected May Queen for this year with Miss Jean Hendricks, maid of honor, and the Misses Marie Aiello, Jane Johnston, Mara Muller, Ruth Every, Barbara Haver and Barbara Whelan, attendants. A program of music, dances, drills and tumbling has been arranged.

Eugene B. Carey, chairman of the American Cancer Society drive in Kingston and Ulster county, when interviewed today, about the progress of the financial drive stated that the latest report from Treasurer Oscar J. Lawatsch showed that about $5,000 had been contributed.

The campaign committee had been requested to raise at least $14,000 in order to reach that amount. Chairman Carey made a special appeal to all who have not as yet given to do so this week.

Mr. Carey said that there had been mailed from campaign headquarters about 2,200 letters, personally addressed to some person, firm or industry and no answer was received from many. Appeals for contributions were made in groups, he said. The banks and bankers in Ulster county were personally appealed to for contributions by William H. Arab Volunteers Take Over Jews in Old City of Jerusalem

Tel Aviv, Israel, May 17 (AP)—Israel's army said today it has struck seven miles into Lebanon and destroyed a strategic bridge. It declared also that the Arab city of Acre, 12 miles south of the Lebanese-Palestine frontier, "is expected to surrender at any moment."

Planes bombed Tel Aviv for the third successive day. Haganah, the army, said several bombs were dropped at 5 a. m. The attack appeared aimed at the port area by a light or medium bomber and one other plane. At least 10 persons were killed from the air on Saturday and Sunday.

Moshe Shertok, foreign minister, acknowledged heavy Arab pressure in the northeast and south. The Egyptians were pressing into the Negev, or southern desert, and the Iraqi army was striking in the northern Galilee valley, he said.

Haganah issued this communique at noon:

"In the Semakh area, Lake Galilee, heavy attacks were made on our positions yesterday. Three enemy armored cars were hit and put out of action. Two attempts by enemy infantry to attack our positions were repulsed, each time with enemy casualties.

"Enemy armored cars, artillery and infantry yesterday attacked Goshor, on the Trans-Jordan frontier. Heavy guns fired from the Irbid road and Wadi Bana. Two enemy armored cars were put out of action and an infantry attack was repulsed.

"At 5 a. m. Tel Aviv was attacked from the air. Several bombs were dropped." (End text).

Haganah said 31 Egyptians had been killed in a two-day battle for Nairin, southernmost Jewish settlement in the Negev, and 200 enemy soldiers had been killed and wounded at Maikha, near the Jewish state's northeastern border with Lebanon.

(A Syrian army communique issued in Damascus last night said that Jewish Arab liberation army had recaptured Maikha from the Jews.)

Acre, old crusaders' port 12 miles below the Lebanese border, is just north of the coastal-strip earmarked for Palestine Jews in the United Nations' partition plan. Thousands of Arabs fled there from Haifa, across a bay, when Haifa fell to Haganah a few weeks before Israel came into being last Friday midnight. Haganah claims to have reached Ras En Naqura on the frontier to the north by bypassing Acre.

Haganah's upper Galilee radio station, said a Haifa dispatch, announced last night that a striking force had gone seven miles into Lebanon and destroyed a strategic bridge over the Litany river at a cost of one man wounded. The army said the raid was in the Merj Uyun district.

The Litany, also called the Nahar El Kasiniyeh, flows into the Mediterranean six miles north of Tyre. Its distance from Palestine ranges from about 18 miles there to about two miles in the interior.)

Tel Aviv was raided by Egyptian planes three times yesterday. Haganah said the Egyptian air force had bombarded Jewish settlements along the Sea of Galilee in northern Palestine, with some casualties.

(Reliable London sources said last night one other soldier was killed.)

Haganah also reported enemy air attacks on Thiorias and several other Jewish settlements along the coast of the Mediterranean. The raiders were fighters and light bombers. They bombed and machinegunned ground objectives. No Jewish fighters went out to meet them, but Israeli military scandalous grab for profits in the history of our country."

Ken Bannon, U.A.W. Ford director, said the company's proposal was "unjustified." He said, however, that the union would be "happy" to withdraw its wage demand if Ford "will successfully exert its influence on the rest of American industrial management and upon Congress to effect a substantial rollback in the cost of living."

Ford said the American people would particularly welcome at this time a major company and a major union working together constructively in the public interest.

As the Ford-union exchange was going on, the U.A.W. reported that 7,000 General Motors workers at the La Grange, Ill., electro-motive plants of G.M. had approved strike action if wage demands were not met.

G.M. workers at the Detroit diesel and transmission plants and the Flint, Mich., Fisher body factory took like action, the union said.

Ford's demand for elimination of wage differentials was brand new.

In general, the auto plant worker's pay is referred to as about $1.50 an hour.

However, there are differences among plants and companies. The companies have never made public their full wage scales, but an informal comparison is about like this:

Ford, $1.53 an hour; Chrysler, $1.43; General Motors, $1.42.

In event of no change in the present wage patterns, Ford's proposal for removing the differential would have the effect of an actual wage cut for Ford workers.

Or, if a wage rise were not large enough to bring rival manufacturers' pay to the Ford level, Ford's pay would go down.

Proposed a "sound, basic plan" for an incentive pay system and eliminating the company pay to union men for time spent on union business.

bert Lea, Minn., 100 miles south of here.

Under 1,000 workers of the Wilson and Company plant who are members of the C.I.O. United Packing House Workers Union are on strike there.

Meanwhile, armed militia men patrolled South St. Paul streets and watched livestock trucks roll into market for the first time in nine days.

In summoning officials of the U.P.W.A. and of strikebound Minnesota plants of Wilson, Armour, Swift and Company and Cudahy to meet with him, the governor said in his telegrams that "our farmers, business men, workers and citizens are aroused and are insisting" on immediate settlement of the strike.

The government has emphasized that the troops were called to restore and maintain order and not to advance the interests of one side or the other.

The strike began in March against the nation's major packers after the union demanded a 29 cents hourly wage boost. The companies offered nine cents. The A.F.L. meat handlers accepted this but the C.I.O. group refused it.

The union contends the present wage scales range from $1.10 to $1.01 or less hourly.

Snyder, Miss Sherriff Improve at Hospital

Richard Snyder, 20, of Saugerties, has shown "slight improvement" at Kingston Hospital, although his condition is listed as "still serious," authorities there reported today. The condition of Miss Audrey Sherriff, of Glenford, was listed as "good" at the hospital today.

Both were injured Sunday, May 9, when the motorcycle on which they were riding hit a bump in the road and upset on Route 208 near the Orange-Ulster county line, according to Snyder's father, Herman Snyder.

The youth, who remained unconscious for several days after his admission, has now regained consciousness, hospital authorities said.

Reuther Is Home After Month in Detroit Hospital

Detroit, May 17 (AP)—Walter Reuther was back home today from nearly a month in a hospital after surviving an apparent attempt on his life.

The red-haired president of the C.I.O. United Auto Workers, who came home Sunday in a police escort, seemed his characteristic self except for his injury.

"And that can't be soon enough," he remarked in asserting he had been on his union job whenever his doctors permitted.

His claimed right arm, which a shotgun blast nearly tore from his body the night of April 20, was in a cast extending over the upper half of his body.

Doctors said he would be confined at home several weeks and that it might be ten months before the extent of the injury to his arm could be determined.

A guard of police and unionists brought him home in midafternoon Sunday, giving no advance word of the plan. His wife, Mae, and daughter Linda were with him.

Reuther said the pain on his trip from New Grace Hospital was "terrible" but that he "put up a front" for the sake of Linda and a smaller sister. He smiled and joked on the trip.

An unidentified assailant shot at Reuther through a window of the Reuther home the night of April 20. A police investigation has failed to trace the man.

sources said anti-aircraft fire definitely had downed one, probably two and possibly three since the attacks started Saturday.

The plane was a new anti-aircraft type, higher and caused less damage yesterday than Saturday. The Jewish army said buildings and homes suffered small damage. Censorship prevented detailed reporting.

Arab Claims Made

Cairo, May 17 (AP)—The Arab higher executive committee said today Egyptian troops captured by the Jewish army of Tel Aviv after an advance of at least 34 miles into Palestine.

The office said also the Jewish Agency has authorized the surrender of Jews in the old City of Jerusalem to the Arab volunteer command.

The "conditions of surrender" provide that the Jews give up their arms, that men be considered prisoners of war and that women and children be handed over to International Red Cross, it said.

The office, quoting a communiqué from the middle east broadcasting station, said Syrian and Iraqi troops have joined forces in the Samakh area at the southern tip of the Sea of Galilee. The town, reported captured by the Syrians, is two and a half miles inside Palestine from both Syria and Trans-Jordan.

The Arabs claimed also to have seized the Rutenburg power station at the confluence of the Yarmuk and Jordan rivers. King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan asserted the station supplied two-thirds of Jewish industry in Palestine. Arab volunteers were reported to have captured the Lydda airport, 10 miles from Tel Aviv, and another strip at the Qalandiya Jewish Colony.

Greeks Investigate

Markos Vafiades, leader of the Communist Greek guerrillas. Yesterday morning, his body floated ashore along Salomon's Niki (victory) boulevard, the city's fashionable promenade. Apparently fearing an international incident, police concealed for several hours the fact that Polk had been shot in the back of the head. His hands and legs were bound with twine.

The coroner estimated his body had been in the water seven days. "I am going to mobilize the entire police of Greece to uncover the details of his death," Sophoulis said.

Police officials said they were hunting for suspected Communists with whom Polk, a Navy veteran cited for heroism, might have made contact in trying to reach Markos. The rebel radio lately has been calling all Americans "Fascist beasts."

In Athens, however, a close friend of Polk's said the C.B.S. correspondent had received several threatening telephone calls, in which the callers accused him of being a Communist, indicating that anti-Communists might have desired his death.

Mrs. Rhea Polk, his bride of eight months, said her husband had a feeling he was going to die. "He felt," she said, "he had had every experience in life and there was no new goal to look forward to."

She said he had been threatened by both Arabs and Jews in Palestine, but never, so far as she knew, in Greece. He has been the chief Middle East correspondent for C.B.S. for two years. Mrs. Polk said his body will be buried in Athens, in accordance with his will, which stipulated that he be buried in the country in which he died.

Non-Communist Pledge Seems Headed for Courts

Boston, May 17 (AP)—A test of the constitutionality of the Taft-Hartley Act's non-Communist pledge requirement appeared headed for the courts today.

The C.I.O.'s biggest union—the steelworkers—continued their 10 months holdout against the requirement in the face of a deadline set for its officers to file the affidavits in a major case.

The steelworkers 41-man executive board by-passed the question in a closed meeting yesterday after President Philip Murray announced his union was "proceeding with the trial of the Inland Steel case."

Inland Steel has been ordered by the National Labor Relations Board to bargain with the steelworkers on pensions if the union's officers complied with the Taft-Hartley Act's requirement and filed non-Communist affidavits by today.

The union's executive board was handed the question by nearly 3,200 convention delegates last week after Murray urged a court test of the constitutionality of the law. The board is not scheduled to meet again until next month.

Murray, who also heads the National C.I.O., has called his refusal to sign an affidavit "A matter of principle."

300-Pound Ice Cube Melted in 81 Hours

Ruth Gordon of Beerkill Lodge, Greenfield Park, may have some future ideas on the melting time of ice.

She had at least one idea on the subject that paid off when she guessed that the 300-pound cake of ice exhibited in front of the store of Montgomery Ward & Co., North Front street, would melt in 81 hours.

That was the figure she put down and according to the management it took just that amount of time to melt the huge ice cube. She won a $10 blanket—one of the type advertised in the special exhibit. A blanket was frozen inside the block of ice, as part of the demonstration.

Czech Airforce Said To Be Quitting Fast

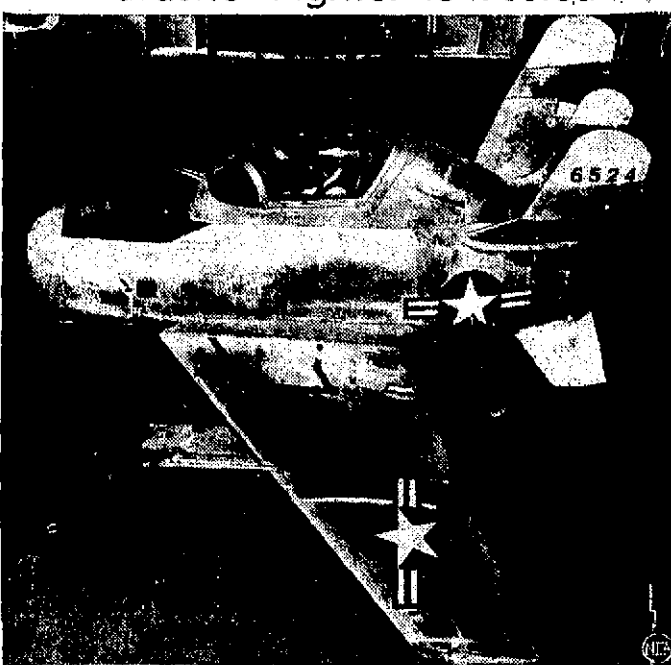

Munich, Germany, May 17 (AP)—A refugee Czech officer says the Czechoslovak airforce is deserting in wholesale lots. He estimated only five per cent of Czech air officers were Communist-minded.

The officer, a lieutenant whose name may not be disclosed for his safety's sake, said the deserters are fleeing into Germany by land, since it has become too tough to feel planes anymore.

The Czech Air Corps trained with the British Air Force during the war. At least a thousand former Czech military men are reported to be in Bavaria now.

AS PEGLER SEES IT

By WESTBROOK PEGLER

It would be good for the republic if the citizens would never forget the truth about the human race or "the people" generally. We have had so much flattery in our diet, we of the more or less free countries, that we have developed an allergy for truth. It makes us break out in spots, lose our temper and do things at the polls which are very bad for us.

Roosevelt called the people "my friends" and often said in his confidential manner, of a tail-board professor selling pills to restore lost youth, "you know and I know—" It gave him the power of a snake-charmer's flute, although he was beyond doubt a supercilious snob, which is a far different thing from a man of quality who honestly knows that he is superior to those before him and exhibits his superiority all the time.

A true aristocrat would never fawn upon the people and pretend to regard them as his equals. That man would be a snob and there you have the difference between Roosevelt and, shall I say, Senator Taft? We have not many aristocrats, but Taft is one. For that reason he is incapable of trucking to the ignorance, bigotry and greed of the entire population but limits himself to a dignified offer to serve them as president. It is more their opportunity than his. He is not a super-man but just a superior fellow. But even though the people know this they would nevertheless prefer a man who would claim to be a super-man and yet just one of the plain people—a super-man, like them.

A few weeks ago a "poll" conducted by a private concern arrived at the conclusion that Eleanor Roosevelt was a great woman. The reasons supporting this mass opinion were not stated in detail and I am guilty of carelessness in suggesting that reason played any part in it. It was, however, no more convincing or complimentary to the subject than the frantic adulation of the Germans for Hitler and of the Italians for Mussolini. Like Eleanor the Great, these two mountebanks aroused in their followers self-pity and self-esteem that were unjustified and, in the long run, very bad for them. They were neither as put-upon nor as virtuous as their leaders told them they were. Their votes were, in large part, fairly earned by their own defects and culpable failures and, for the rest, were just the rub of the green in life. We, in the United States, we, the people, that is, ridiculed them for their stupid inconsistency in believing that they were warriors and yet submitting to nocturnal horrors from the goons, in believing that they were of the master race when they were incapable of independent thought on anything, and that destiny, or God, had sent Der Fuehrer and Il Duce to guide them to some glorious place in the history of man.

At the same time in our country, under similar magic wrought by Eleanor's husband, millions of Americans, those sally, shrewd and doughty fellows, were banding together in a truly heroic war against the hired thugs of corporate greed and, at the same time, running like rats from the pickets of the early C.I.O. Those pickets suddenly appeared in a hundred of our industrial cities, coming from nowhere in the night like the Brown Shirts and the Black—nameless, hard-faced strangers wearing brassards or fore-and-aft caps with piping on them. Somebody fed them, paid them, shipped them here and there. Some leader did that. Like Hitler's and Mussolini's early goons, they were semi-military.

And like the brave German and Italian "people," the Americans demurred a little, saw blood on the pavements, quailed and quit. And these were Roosevelt's pickets, driving "the people" into his auxiliary so that they would have to give money to his party's funds and turn out at rallies for his party and keep him in power as long as he lived.

The American "people" were not incapable of independent thought. They just refrained from thinking independent thoughts because dissident thoughts were bad thoughts. It was bad to inquire whether the Germans had valid grievances and to believe that since all of European Africa had been taken by conquest, Mussolini was only following precedent in Abyssinia. It was insulting to ask how much money the President's wife and his mother were getting out of their little rackets.

Within the month, the chairman of the Democratic National Committee formally declared that President Truman was actually receiving and acting on orders and advice from Roosevelt in some other world. He did not say which one. No American has managed to rebel against this aloud although it were blasphemy according to some teachings, and Hitlerism beyond a doubt. The American republic was thus placed under the executive management of a spirit medium who had been selected personally by Mr. Roosevelt with the advice and consent of Sidney Hillman, a slightly naturalized Russian.

As one of the people, I wish I could subscribe to the dangerous delusion that we are a fine lot with a true, constant instinct for nobility and goodness, wobbling and wandering, to be sure, but steadily progressing toward perfection.

An honest member of "the people" must reflect that we are showy in favorable circumstances rather than brave, like the workers who defied the manacled and muffled bosses in the 'thirties but cringed before the goons of John L. Lewis. Roosevelt and others directed their fury against "corporate greed." But unions are "corporations" in the true sense of the word and greed is their only emotion. Millions of the American people have struck and oppressed millions of their fellow-people and beaten and even killed many of them only to gratify their own corporate greed. They are no different from the stockholders whose corporate greed is evil by contrast with their own, which is noble. If the greed of corporations or stockholders, which are actually associations of "the people," is despicable, then what of the greed of Mr. Roosevelt himself and will you name any prominent man of his time who was as greedy and stingy as he? "The people" never initiate great forms but always must be wheeled and led by superior individuals. Armed revolutions are dated afterward with spiritual nobility but actually they are, at the time, desperate outbreaks by people who resent sufferings inflicted on them and greedily want comfort, luxury and possessions. The horrors that disgrace the pages of human history were committed not by reptiles or animals or germs of violence of nature but by "the people" themselves, under leaders, and almost invariably under beautiful banners of aspiration. In this proud era of civilization the butcheries of "people" by "the people" have been the greatest in the story of mankind. I wouldn't put much store by victory in a popularity poll. I would consider the source, especially if I were Eleanor.

Days when the banks were a bit different from what they are now are recalled in this story.

A man gave his grocer a check in payment of a bill and it came back marked "no funds."

"Man, but I am positive there is some mistake!" (When the grocer told him about it, "Let's go down to the bank and see what's the matter.")

"Does this man have an account here?"

"He does."

"Then why did this check come back marked no funds?"

"That's the way. That no-account holder the man had no funds. It meant the bank had no funds."

We sometimes wonder whether sportsmen listen to their own comments.

"Just you think that sportsmen make excellent husbands."

"My dear, clever men don't become husbands."

"Name three articles that sportsmen own."

"Two cuffs and a collar."

Red was whitewashing the barn with a brush that had very few bristles left in it. The Square jawed and observed: "Why don't you get a new brush with more bristles?"

"What for, Squid?"

"Why, man, if you had a proper brush you could do twice as much work."

"Name a Square melody."

"Only you can say. I can't put twice as much work to do."

Would a woman wear slacks if she had hindlegs? We ask you.

Ed had been relieved of the pain of watching him had been relieved of the response he'd up at his feet.

A woman subscriber complained that her telephone bill did not ring in that she learned to answer the phone when the dog howled in the back yard.

The captain man found the dog chained to the ground with a lead. "There was a short circuit and the dog was shocked every time his mistress' number was called."

What for, Squid?

Why, man, if you had a proper brush you could do twice as much work.

Name a Square melody.

Only you can say. I can't put twice as much work to do.

Election of Statesman Takes Place at Tel Aviv by Council

ALL TEL AVIV, May 17 (AP)—Chaim Weizmann, statesman, Dr. Weizmann, became president of the new Jewish state, Israel, in a ceremony here today.

Weizmann, elected president of the Jewish state, took the oath of office in the presence of the executive council, Israel's prime minister, supported Dr. Weizmann.

All members of the new government except one are Palestinians, who automatically became citizens of the new state. The exception is Dr. Weizmann, a British subject. It is presumed here he will change his citizenship, if he accepts his new post.

Ill in New York
The leader of the world's newest state is now under the care of a physician in New York city. The nature of his illness has not been disclosed.

Dr. Weizmann, one of the outstanding figures in world Jewry, is credited with having played one of the major roles in the establishment of the new Jewish state, having fought nearly all his life for Zion.

His services to Great Britain during the first World War are said to have been the basis for the Balfour Declaration of 1917, in which the British government pledged to provide a "national home" for the Jews in Palestine after the war.

A chemist, he was born on November 27, 1874, in the town of Minsk, near Pinsk, in eastern Poland. He studied in Pinsk and in Germany. He went to England in 1904, as a lecturer in biological chemistry at Manchester University.

Utah's Democrats endorsed the administration's foreign policy. They did not raise the question of instructing delegates to the national convention. Twenty delegates with 12 votes were chosen.

Supporters of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey claimed 16 or 17 of the 19 delegates named to the G.O.P. national convention by the party's Washington state convention. Backers of Harold E. Stassen and Senator Robert A. Taft disputed this. Stassen and Taft each claimed four delegates for their candidates.

Henry A. Wallace, the third party presidential candidate, told a Mexican-American gathering in Los Angeles that the monopoly system—not Communism—poses the real crisis for the American people.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a sister, Miss Amelia Altamari.

The body of P.F.C. Altamari arrived in New York last week aboard the Lawrence Victory from a European military cemetery.

from the various fraternal and social organizations, to whom appeals were made by Joseph F. Saccamano. He also said that the employees of most factories in Kingston had an opportunity to contribute by dropping coins in a coin bank left at the factory. Some were very generous, especially the employees of Sky Line, Fuller's, Jacobson's, The Electric, Reliable Sportswear, Manhattan, King's, Universal, Kingsley Fashion and W. G. B. Clarifier. Besides what was dropped in the coin bank at Jacobson's factory, a special collection was taken up there by Mrs. Mahel Fisher. Forty contributions were received from those grouped as industry and business men.

Mr. Carey said that the campaign was scheduled to officially end on May 15, but because they were so far from the total expected to be raised that the campaign would continue through this week. He asks that you make a contribution, sending it to Oscar J. Lawatsch, treasurer, at the State of New York National Bank on Wall street by Saturday of this week. If you cannot do that, call Mr. Carey or Mr. Lawatsch on the phone and they will call at your home or office for it. Every penny of what you contribute will go to The American Cancer Society. Not one cent will be used for the expenses of this campaign, the expenses in their entirety will be paid by a few friends of Mr. Carey. What you give will be used for education, research and medical service by the American Cancer Society, which is a direct attack against cancer. If the Ulster County Medical Society and the Ulster County Dental Society and the people of Ulster county will show an interest in the effort to stop people from dying an untimely death from cancer, it is quite possible that the American Cancer Society can be interested in allocating funds from its national treasury to help support the tumor clinic being built in Kingston for the people of Ulster county.

Mr. Carey continued on and said that during the first week of April he left 200 coin banks at various

Tommy Maines Appointed Coach; Jimmy Ashdown to Serve as Assistant

Kingston Post, American Legion will enter a team in the national American Legion junior baseball tournament for the first time in nearly a decade. Athletic Officer Andrew J. Murphy III, announced today.

The local post's re-entry into the national competition will be sponsored by the Old Capitol Motor Company operated by George Shivers of this city.

Mr. Shivers told American Legion officials that he is anxious to field the best team possible and he has promised to do all in his power to set up a squad comparable to Kingston's great teams of the past.

Maines Head Coach

Two prominent Kingston baseball figures—Tommy Maines and Jimmy Ashdown—will coach the squad. Maines has been appointed coach with Ashdown as assistant. First practice has been called for Thursday evening, May 20, at municipal stadium and an invitation is extended to all boys who were 17 or under on January 1, 1948.

The selection of the squad will be handled entirely by Maines and Ashdown who plan to eliminate candidates slowly in order to give every boy a chance to make the grade.

All youngsters who are residents of Kingston or the surrounding area are eligible to try out for the team.

Good Baseball Men
The Legion's coaching choices—Maines and Ashdown—are both World War 2 veterans with a solid baseball background.

One of the top all-around athletes in K.H.S. history, Maines later earned stardom in football and baseball at Syracuse University. Tommy made his debut on the baseball diamond with the Kingston Legion team that won the New York state title and lost to Trenton, N. J., in the eastern sectional. Maines also played with the Kingston Colonials, Recreation and other high powered outfits and was known for his long ball hitting and great throwing arm.

Ashdown also played with the New York state champions and his baseball career almost paralleled that of Maines, although he did not play collegiate ball. He played with the Colonials and Reds and was always regarded as a dangerous hitter. He captained two P.D.S.O. League baseball championship squads for Coach G. Warren Kins.

Another Newhouse

James Dwyer captured the week-end sweepstakes with a net score of 72. Lou Smith shot low gross of 79.

The Cohen and Kelly match was postponed another week because of inclement weather conditions.

Calumet Can't Keep Own Family Apart

By JOHN CHANDLER

Baltimore, May 17 (P)—Calumet farm, Warren Wright's fabulous horse flesh factory, faced a bit of calculating today on a mildly pressing problem—how to extract the maximum of racing's rich, three-year-old purses with Citation and Coaltown.

Trainer Jimmy Jones, who saddled Citation Saturday for his smashing Preakness triumph, was talking it over.

"It's too bad a fellow couldn't have had these two in separate years, for they're both such outstanding horses. One in 1948, and the other in 1949," he mused. "That would have been nice."

Coaltown, Citation's flashy stablemate, arrived at Belmont Park in New York Saturday just about the time Citation was making monkeys of three other colts in the Preakness. Jones said he thought Citation would be shipped to Belmont tomorrow.

"But, here's the problem. There are a lot of good races coming up, and we've got to spot them for these two fine horses. We'll try and split them as much as possible, because it's just like battling each other's brains out to run them together."

The postponements left the Cardinale Pioneers in first place in the Class D League. In a Saturday (win) bill, the Pioneers split with Bloomingdale, losing the first game 8-7 and taking the nightcap 3-0. In single games, Stroudsburg defeated Peekskill 6-2. Mahanoy City turned back Lehigh 13-0 and Lansdale defeated Nazareth 3-1.

Ace Horse Judges Appear in Goshen Show on May 22-23

Dr. M. J. Donahue, president, announced today.

The judges include:

Three and five gaited saddle and light harness classes—Ernest S. Mason of Malone, N. Y., and Dr. Janet Meade MacCallum of Seneca, N. Y.

Equitation and Hack—George T. Mescof of Great Neck, L. I., and J. H. Jumper, Rufus C. Finch of Rumson, N. J., and Mrs. James H. Van Allen of Millbrook, N. Y.

Stock Horses—Sidney Culver of West Hampton, L. I., Otis Trowbridge of Pelham, N. Y., will be the announcer. The ringmaster will be Arthur E. McGuire of Belmont, Mass.

Entries closed Thursday, May 13, at Post Office Box 1181, Newburgh, N. Y., for the show.

North Atlantic Loop Haunted by Showers

The North Atlantic League, after getting in a full schedule of games Saturday following three straight days of postponement caused by the weather, was rained out again last night.

The postponements left the Cardinale Pioneers in first place in the Class D League. In a Saturday (win) bill, the Pioneers split with Bloomingdale, losing the first game 8-7 and taking the nightcap 3-0. In single games,

City Champion Fires 80 Score

Billy Van Aken, city golf champion, and Ken Davenport's Maulers shared honors in week-end activities at Wiltwyck Golf Club.

The champion came into his own for the first time this season, firing two rounds of 40 to capture the weekly sweepstakes by two strokes over Maurice Davenport, who had won the first three events of the season.

Davenport's Maulers eked out a thrilling 12½ to 11½ decision over Frank Stone's Crushers in a duel that was decided on the 18th hole of the final foursome.

With only one foursome out, the teams were deadlocked and the battle was carried right to the 18th green where Ike Trowbridge and Ken Davenport sank difficult putts to defeat Ernie Le Fevre and Harry Wilber, 2 and 1, to swinging the tide in favor of Davenport's.

Van Aken and Davenport shot consistent rounds of 40s and 41s, to finish two strokes apart. Although normally high for both of these players, the scores were considered excellent in view of the dismal golf conditions of the week-end.

The short second hole proved to be Davenport's nemesis. He ran into trouble in each round on this hole, wasting five shots with a triple bogey on the first nine and a double bogey on the second.

No. 5 Jars Van Aken
Van Aken found the rugged No. 3 hole a waterlog both times around, carding double bogies. This is the most exacting par-4 hole in the district and is a real toughie under ideal weather conditions.

Low net honors went to Harry Weber when he steamed in with a net 71. Trailing in order were Reuben Leventhal, Frank Stone, Aurelius Pangelicus Modjeska, Ken Davenport, Ed Tongue and Ike Trowbridge.

Van Aken's card: OUT—4-4-6-4-3-6-4-4-5-40; IN—4-3-6-4-4-5-3-5-40.

Davenport's card: OUT—4-6-4-4-6-3-5-41; IN—4-5-4-3-6-5-4-5-41.

Two sweeps were scored in the Crusher-Mauler melee. Capt. Frank Stone and Jim Turk shut out J. Watson Bailey and Arthur Ewig, 3-0; while Dick Davenport and George Svirsky of the Maulers, blanked T. Davenport and Dr. Murray Greene.

The results:

B. Van Aken-H. Green (FC) defeated M. Davenport-Dr. C. Van Gaasbeek (DM), 2 to 1.

D. Davenport-G. Svirsky (DM) defeated T. Davenport-Dr. M. Greene (SC), 3-0.

K. Davenport-I. Trowbridge (DM) defeated E. Le Fevre-H. Wilber (SC), 2 to 1.

B. Schoonmaker-L. Kantrowitz (DM) defeated C. Roth-H. Henion (SC), halved 1½-1½.

G. Schick-J. Stone (DM) defeated L. Bruhn-R. Leventhal (SC), 2-1.

L. G. Kimball-A. Hutton (SC) defeated P. Stone-A. Schultz (DM), 2 to 1.

J. Winters-W. Schaffrick (DM) defeated A. A. Davis-Dr. S. Goldfarb (SC), 2 to 1.

F. Stone-J. Turk (SC) defeated J. W. Bailey-A. Ewig (DM), 3 to 0.

Tommy Danaher, the club pro, was pleased with the splendid turnout which included not only playing members but many spectators who viewed the play from the clubhouse porch. One of the most dismal days of the early golf season failed to curb the enthusiasm of the golfers.

Giant Fans Running Amuck:
Have you noticed that National League standing? If you are anti-Giant in this rabid Giant hotbed of Kingston, you had better run for the nearest foxhole. . . . Since an obscure Giant flinger pitched a complete ball game, our favorite engraver, Knute Beichert, has become almost violent.

Like most Giant aficionados, poor Knute overlooks the fact there are still more than 125 games on the National League schedule. So many things could happen between now and the end of the season. . . . There is also a small item of 19 games with Brooklyn and there's the rub. . . . Why are we so rude as to bring up such a touchy question. . . . Just by way of introducing some deathless poetry penned by a Mr. Foy of Middletown for the benefit of the Giant followers. . . . It goes something like this:

OH! THOSE TERRIBLE BUMS!
Each Giant head hangs on the floor
As Lippy's boys run up the score,
And runs are coming in galore,
my friend,
That's the beginning of the end,
I shed a tear for poor Mel Ott,
Once his boys were pretty hot,
But when they met the Brooklyn flock,
my friend,
That was the beginning of the end,
And so to you my good friend, Knute,
Today you ain't filled up with joy,
Dem BUMS gave up their playing coy,
my friend,
The Jints will finish in the end,
P.S.—You know where.

Rhinebeck Midgets Await Second Week of Racing
Midget auto fans are still talking about the terrific finish last Tuesday night at the Rhinebeck Speedway, located at the Rhinebeck Fairgrounds, when Ted Tappett, the Manhasset Meteor, just did squeeze in under the wire, beating little Ray Nestor, the Bronx Bomber, who was piloting Buck Wheeler's number 21 Offenhauser.

So close was the finish, many of the fans thought that Nestor had won, and proceeded to voice their displeasure at the official decision that had Tappett winning by about 8 inches. Tappett gave a great exhibition, and a thousand thrills to the fans, as he threaded his way from far back in the 12th starting position right up to the head of the parade.

In the meanwhile, Nestor moved up from the 10th position and these two battled it out right down to the wire. The fans were on their feet during the last five laps, as Nestor tried every trick in the game to get out in front.

Schaeffer Featured
A 15-minute shower just before the crowd was scheduled to get under way made the track slick, although the water itself was burned off with gasoline. The shower scared off some of the fans, with the result that many avid fans missed the most thrilling midget duel that we've seen anywhere.

This week's card, scheduled for Tuesday, May 18th, promises to be a stand-out, with the king of the midgets, the Flying Dutchman from Floral Park, L. I., Dutch Schaeffer putting in his first appearance at Rhinebeck this year.

Voted the most popular midget auto pilot in the country last year, Dutch earned those honors by his fearless driving and his topnotch skill in piloting that golden arrow off to the front of the parade many times.

Kingston High's track team set a new school record for the 880-yard relay in defeating Poughkeepsie High, 49-37, in a dual meet Saturday in the Bridge City.

Despite slow track conditions, the Maroon quartet of Kiwus, Trombly, Acker and Keating reeled off the 880 in 1:36.2. The former record was 1:38.6.

Powered by Fran Selig, football fullback, the Kalochoen got off to a fast start and at one stage led by 19 points before the Klammen made a strong finish in the field events.

Swap Two Events
Selig won the 100 and 220-yard dashes, running the century in 10.3 seconds and the 220 in 24 flat. Bobby Bud of Poughkeepsie won the mile in 4:53.9, with Rex Cunningham of Kingston in second place.

Hyde, Chambers and Weaver gave Kingston a sweep in the shotput event. Wilkins, Delamater and McCordie also swept the 440.

Story of Oriental Rugs

The story of oriental rugs—as told by Patrick J. Holland, president of Colonial City Carpet Co., Kingston.

First, when the art of weaving originated is still an uncertainty. But there is an accepted opinion among the archaeologists that it was in existence earlier than the 4th Century before Christ. The Egyptians were the first people who have been able with certainty to associate with the art of weaving.

Monuments of ancient Egypt and of Mesopotamia bear witness that the products of the hand looms go back to a considerable time prior to 2500 B.C. and on the temple of Beni-Hassan are depicted women weaving rugs on looms very much like those of the Orient of the present time.

From ancient literature we learn that the palaces of the Pharaohs were decorated with carpets, and that the tomb of Ramses, father of the ancient Persian monarchy, was covered with a Babylonian carpet. It is even written that Cleopatra (the prodigal) was carried into the presence of the great Caesar wrapped in a rug of the finest texture.

In the Bible we find that the Israelites as they spoke he led them in and placed on couches spread with purple carpets over. Ever in the Bible we read where the Israelites as they spoke he led them in and placed on couches spread with purple carpets over.

It is believed Persia acquired the art of weaving from the Babylonians many centuries before Christ, since which time she has held the place among the rug weaving nations of the East.

There is no more fascinating story than that of oriental rugs. The compass of it is a most interesting one. It reads from the life of both a hygienic and a living people. A fine rug is a work of art.

Soft Coal Owners To Resist Lewis Pay. Royalty Bid

Washington, May 17 (AP)—Soft coal operators, mulling over strategy for new contract negotiations with John L. Lewis, indicated today they will resist any demands for higher pay or bigger royalty payments to the miners' union.

The operators' negotiations open today with the United Mine Workers' national policy committee, which is expected to open a negotiation session. They kept their plans secret.

The present contract expires June 3. However, the soft coal operators have been in contention with the union since June 28, 1947, when the negotiators really have been at it to get together on a new contract.

The operators worked over a statement of their position at preliminary talks yesterday and conferences of all major groups today. The union considered it a compromise to offer Lewis a one or two year extension on his present contract, an effect sidestepping a showdown on the coal industry's cost of that round, postwar pay increase.

Soft coal miners received a wage boost of 15 cents an hour in 1947 and 15 cents in 1948. They have bargained for additional pay and welfare benefits. One benefit was a payment of 10 cents a week to a miners' benefit fund for every ton of coal mined.

But the operators already have suggested that Lewis seek a 4-cent wage increase to finance his new plan. Some also suggested a return to the 40-hour work week with a loss of pay. The current agreement calls for a 40-hour week. The base daily pay is $3.00. The Bureau of Labor Statistics says coal miners lead all industrial workers with an average weekly earnings of $50.78.

Harkin Says Only 300 Places Remain In Area's Units

Colonel Says Enlistments Are Due for Stimulus, if New Draft Law Is Enacted

A prediction that enlistments in the 156th Field Artillery Battalion will receive a tremendous stimulus, if Congress enacts the new draft law, was made Sunday by Lt. Col. Frank Harkin, commanding officer of the local unit, who warned that fewer than 300 places are still open in the Kingston-Poughkeepsie area National Guard units.

Col. Harkin pointed out that the draft bill approved last week by the House armed services committee provides exemption for members of the National Guard or for those who enlist before the law becomes effective. "Ordinarily," he declared, "a bill becomes law 90 days after the President signs it."

The local officer also expressed his opinion that the bill seems certain to pass both houses of Congress with that provision and that as a result, there will be a rush of eligible men for the draft to get into the 156th. Col. Harkin stressed the fact that the enlistee who enters the guard will have the opportunity to serve and live at home.

He also said another provision also intended to spur National Guard enlistments enables men to avoid the draft if they enlist in the Guard or other reserve before reaching the age of 18½ years. "The minimum age for guard enlistments is 17," he said.

Possibility that the exemption provision will not be in the bill now before Congress as it is finally passed was minimized by Col. Harkin who said that he had talked recently with General Brock who revealed that Rep. Walter G. Andrews, chairman of the armed services committee, had indicated that the provision would be included.

The draft bill approved by the Andrews committee will come up for debate this week in the House. It provides for registration for all men from 18 to 30 with those from 19 to 25 eligible for two years service. Most of World War 2 veterans would be exempt.

Col. Harkin also discussed the feelings of various business concerns and enterprises in New York city in regard to formulation.

(Snapped by your Central photographer)

CURRYING TODAY'S IRON HORSE. A new 2,000 horsepower Diesel-electric passenger locomotive gets a final grooming with live steam before starting its run through "Central-land." This sleek giant is typical of the 192 new freight and passenger road Diesels ordered by New York Central at a cost of over $48,000,000. More than half are now in service...the rest are coming soon to head up Central's new streamliners, dreamliners and fast freights. These new Diesels are joining New York Central's already vast fleet of 2,495 electric, steam and Diesel road locomotives to make up the mighty force of motive power that highlights the NEW in New York Central.
